

No-Cost Art Opportunity
For Elementary and Secondary Teachers

Each year Write On Calligraphers, an Edmonds-based non-profit arts organization, sponsors the LETTERS OF JOY conference. Now in its 37th year, the conference includes workshops on calligraphy, book arts and paper crafts.

This year we are offering three scholarships for teachers. The scholarship is not based on financial need but rather on how your attendance will benefit your teaching. The scholarship covers admission to the Friday night keynote lecture, attendance at up to three two-hour classes on Saturday and Saturday lunch. The conference also features vendors, a calligraphy exhibit and a silent auction of art-related supplies.

When:

Friday, May 1, 2020, 5:30 p.m.–9:00 p.m.
(Keynote lecture at 7:00 p.m.)
Saturday, May 2, 2020, 8:00 a.m.–6:00 p.m.

Where:

Shoreline Community College, Shoreline, Washington

For more information:

Website: writeoncalligraphers.org/letters-of-joy/loj-event-information
E-mail: writeoncalligraphers@gmail.com

How to Apply:

1. Download and print the Letters of Joy Registration Brochure and Form from our website.
2. Download and print the Scholarship Application Form found on our website. Fill it out completely in your own handwriting
3. Send completed Registration Form and Scholarship Application to:
Attn: LOJ Scholarships
Sue Gruhn
14253 92nd Pl. NE
Kirkland, WA 98034-5149

Registration begins March 16, 2020.

Do not mail before that date. Please note, however, that all scholarship applications must be received by April 10, 2020. You will be notified whether or not your application is successful.